Controversy Over School District Areas Continues In Kenosha County, Wis.

Central District Ballots on New High School Today — Wilmot Fights

More strife has arisen in western Kenosha county's high school situation following the announcement that Wilmot high school district is holding meetings in townships adjacent to the present Wilmot district with the purpose of annexing these territories to their district.

Already the question of the legality of these meetings has come up since July 19, at a meeting in the county courthouse, the county school committee formed a new central high school district with a referendum on their order being asked for and the date set as Aug. 3.

Andrew Brookhouse, Kenosha attorney and member of the county school committee raised the question of the legality of these annexation meetings. The state statutes (40:68) provide for annexation following petition of "territory not in but adjoining a high school district.

The central high school spokesmen say the Wilmot petitioners have no legal right to petition for annexation since the territory where these papers are being circulated is now in the central high school district following its formation July 19 by the county school authorties.

Wilmot argues that these petitions which were circulated in parts of Wheatland, Salem and Brighton townships are legal and are going ahead with their meetings. Meetings to vote on annexation to Wilmot distrct were held Wednesday, July 21 at the Miner school, Brighton; Friday night at the Salem town hall and at the Wheatland town hall Monday night.

Brighton Favors Wilmot

Despite a letter from the state department of public instruction, stating that any action at the meeting would be "without force" Brighton township voters favored the annexation to Wilmot high school district 13 to 9. This vote was of 45 electors residing in four sections of the township who met at the Miner school Wednesday night. Residents of other sections in the township are not affected.

Salem Refused Action

Sixty-one out of 80 voters in the eastern half of Salem township voted Friday night to adjourn the meeting without voting on a petition to annex their territory to the Wilmot High school district.

Wheatland Favors Return

At Monday night's meeting of residents of portions of Wheatland township the meeting decided to ignore the Kimball letter and cast a vote of 49 to 28. This vote followed efforts to adjourn the meeting without a vote on the matter of annexing to Wilmot district. Kimball's statement as to the legality of the proceedings (expressed within the letters was challenged by Wilmot district proponents.

Lions Fair, Carnival Opens with Plenty of Entertainment, Thrills

Profits Will Go To Finance Worthwhile Community Projects

The Lions fair and carnival opened last evening at the Ackerman ground on Broadway with plenty of entertainment.

Six acts were staged at 10:30 p. m., by the Bedell circus troupe and will be given nightly until the close of the fair Sunday. The acts include Jay's knockout comedy, May Bedell on a swinging trapeze, Captain Eddy and his ponies, Richard on a swinging trapeze, a dog that does a high dive, and a teeter board tumbling act by the entire troupe.

There are seven rides instead of five as first planned, a roll-a-whirl and a kiddie ride having been added to the standard rides provided by this company. Two tents house the commercial exhibits.

The lakes area was informed of the five-day event through an aerial broadcast by William Horton, owner of Bill's Welding and Sales Co., who used his own plane and an amplifier system at no expense to the Lions club.

The profits of the carnival will be used by the Lions purely for community projects. Besides the Antioch Rescue squad the money will go to the Scout troops and Scout house, and to a fund to be used in purchasing new street lights.

Since it is for the community's welfare, officials of the club feel free to encourage the community to attend. Officers of the club are:

Irving W. Carey, president; R. G. Holtz, first vice president; K. F. Deitrick, second vice president; Robert J. Wilton, third vice president; John R. Russo, secretary; George Garland, treasurer; William E. Brook, past president; C. E. Gaffey, James E. Kopriva, Arthur Smejkal and Paul Erickson, directors.

Village Trustees Must Decide on Rent Control

The village board has a tough situation to handle on rent control.

It may pass an ordinance extending rent control after December 31, otherwise it ends.

Landlords want the opportunity to raise rents saying that their income is not enough to pay for upkeep of the premises, renters say their income isn't enough to pay higher rents.

The board must decide between the two.

In the larger cities organized labor has put on such pressure that the councils are plannings to extend rent control. There are more votes from the renters than from the landlords, they argue.

Dale Barnstable to Be Coach at Manual High In Louisville, Kentucky

Lexington, Ky.—Dale Barnstable of Antioch, star guard for the University of Kentucky basketball team for the past four years, recently was appointed head basketball and golf coach at Dupont Manual high school of Louisville, Ky.

Barnstable, June graduate of U. K., is currently enrolled in summer school at the university, and working on his master's degree in the Education college.

During his four years at the Bluegrass school, Barnstable won seven varsity letters, four in basketball, two in golf and one in track.

As a member of Kentucky's net squad, he participated in five national tournaments. He played on the Wildcats squad which won the 1948 national collegiate crown and the right to represent the United States in the Olympic Games of that year.

Although one of the largest high schools in the state, Manual has not been considered a powerhouse in Kentucky schoolboy basketball since they captured the Kentucky title in 1931. The Louisville coeducational school has an enrollment of 2,600 students.

Previously, in the early twenties, Manual basketeers captured the Kentucky championship three times in the space of four years.

Married, Barnstable will take over his coaching duties Sept. 1.

Antioch Moose Win 22-18

The Antioch Moose club softball team whipped Highland Park Moose club by a 22-18 score at the local high school diamond last Friday in their initial game of the second round.

The victory boosted the local club into first place in the Moose league comprised of teams from Waukegan, Highland Park, Woodstock, Crystal Lake and Antioch. In this first year of competition the local team didn't fare so well in the initial round, but they have shown much improvement in recent games and should wind up the season near the top of the league.

In Friday's victory Antioch was paced by Joe Goelitz and Jack Smith with three bingles apiece and Joe Buszta with a home run and a double. Art Meyers hurled the complete game for the winners, and although hit hard in three of the innings, had enough steam left to snuff out a ninth inning rally by Highland Park.

The losers attack was led by Bob Stillwell and Genio, each with three hits.

As credit should always be given where deserved, mention should be made of the fine team spirit generated through the efforts of the local club's peppery catcher, the usually quiet Bill "Blubber" Johnson. It has been a revelation to this writer, following the Antioch Moose this season, that such a soft-spoken fellow as "Blubber", could become such a ball-of-fire on the diamond.

The Moose club schedule brings Woods Drug Store of Lake Forest to Antioch for a game tonight, starting at 8:30. Sunday the team travels to Woodstock for a league game.

School Budget on File

The Antioch grade school tentative budget and appropriation ordinance will be available for inspection at the home of Henry J. Rentner after tomorrow and a public hearing will take place Sept. 12 at the school.

Also given official notice in this issue is the filing of the tentative budget and appropriation ordinance for road and bridge purposes at the town clerk's office and the hearing on Sept. 5 at the village hall.

Antioch Assessment Roll Is Published

The assessment roll for the Town of Antioch as fixed by the assessor, appears on pages 3, 4 and 5 of this issue of the Antioch News. Every resident of the Town of Antioch, which includes the Village of Antioch, should make it a point to check up on the amount of his assessment.

Any property owner who objects to the amount of his valuation should file a formal complaint with the Board of Review within 10 days from the date of publication of this assessment roll.

Lack of Steel Delays Grade School Addition Beyond Opening Time

Board Must Find Space for Two Rooms of Children For While

The new addition to the Antioch grade school was delayed so long by lack of steel that it will not be ready for use at the opening of school in September.

Principal Richard Whitacre said that the board is already seeking housing for two rooms of children and are changing their plans in view of the situation.

Steel for the building was delivered six weeks late. The work on the building had progressed rapidly up to that time, and there were plenty of brick layers. Now there are but two brick layers to complete the work.

The walls will be completed this week, however, and most of the steel has been placed in position. Work on the roofing will start Monday.

Principal Whitacre said that he expects some delay in the mill work and that while the building should be enclosed soon, the work on the interior may take some time.

"We have practically given up hope of having the place ready for use when school is scheduled to open," said Whitacre.

The fourth and sixth rooms of the old building have been redecorated. The floors have been sanded, the walls decorated and furnishings changed, so that the two rooms are more inviting.

Those interested are reminded that Sgt. Lihn may be seen in Antioch every Tuesday at Zehren's Restaurant on Main St., from the hours of 11 a. m. to 2:30 p. m.

Lihn's presence here this week became known through his use of a public address system over which music was played.

Rescue Squad Recovers Body of Youth Drowned At Channel Lake Friday

The Antioch Rescue squad working about an hour Friday evening recovered the body of Salvatore Pedi, 21, Forest Park, near Chicago, who drowned after falling from a speeding surf board in front of the Slide Inn tavern, Channel lake.

William Bond, 21, also of Forest Park, who owned and operated the power boat towing the surf board and Joseph Basarich, 24, Berkley, a companion, said that Pedi suddenly pitched off the surf board and failed to come up.

Bond said he swung the boat around and returned to the spot where Pedi went down and with Basarich began diving in effort to find him, but failed. They then summoned the rescue squad.

The body was taken to Chicago for burial.

The horse show will start at 7:30 p. m. the three evenings.

There will be a parade of prize winning animals at 10:30 a. m. Friday and the children's parade will be at 2 p. m. Saturday.

Receives Head Injuries

Alvin MacDonald, 26, of Main st., escaped serious injury when his car left the road and overturned on Rte. 21, a mile north of the state line last Friday. Although his car was demolished, MacDonald suffered only a neck injury and a cut nose. The Rescue squad brought him to a local physician for care.

Two House Permits

Building permits have been authorized by the village board to Dan Sheehan for a five-room house in Barney Naber's subdivision; valued at $8,000 and to Arthur Bock for a $10,000 brick veneer home on Lake St.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. McCabe and daughters Cathy and Patty, of Washington, D. C., are visiting Mrs. McCabe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Bell, of Channel Lake Shores, for a few weeks.

Trustees Plan Special Meeting for August 15 To Establish Tax Levy

Road Repair Bids Will Be Received, Minor Matters Transacted

The village board Tuesday evening left to an adjourned session establishing its levy for the coming on Tuesday, Aug. 15, the task of year and receiving bids for work on the arterial streets.

The board received word from Victor Kasser, engineer for the village, that the request for motor fuel tax money to repair the streets has been granted but must be used within the next four weeks.

Kasser has been engaged by the village to draw up the five-year plan for street improvements as required by the state.

E. F. Laurin, Arlington, Ill., an auditor for the village made his yearly report with but minor recommendations. He recommended that the village treasurer charge her fees to the general fund rather than to the sinking fund, and that the clerk be provided an autographer register using special printed receipt forms for use in issuing all licenses, permits, and other cash receipts except water collections.

Clerk L. D. Powles has objected to such an instrument in the past because the village has no business office and it would be awkward for him to transport it about from his home to the village hall.

The report showed as interesting items the fact that Antioch has 444 licensed motor vehicles and its parking meter receipts for the year were $8,508.60, with fines amounting to $696.50. The auditor recommended that a record be kept of the persons fined.

The board conferred at length with Laurin on the claim of Dr. B. J. Corbin, Cross Lake, who is seeking compound interest on money said to have been collected by the village on special assessment bonds since 1925.

The principal on the bonds left to be paid amounts to $337.38, but Corbin maintains that the village owes him not only interest on his share of the money paid in years ago, but also on bonds that were paid off and which he has in his possession. The village has offered to pay the bond and interest, but so far neither it or Corbin has been able to determine what the amount shall be.

Laurin said to determine the exact amount would be almost an endless task, but he will search for such available information as he possesses in an attempt to arrive at a settlement.

The fire department was given permission to purchase four lengths of one-inch hose.

The water department will purchase a new pressure gauge to supplement the one now in use. When the heat threw one of the pumps out this week and the second pump and it went on together the vibration became dangerous. The second gauge will eliminate this danger by staggering the cut off.

The board is considering the painting of its water tower.

Economy Minded Board To Go Slow in Letting High School Contract

Economy minded members of the Antioch Township High school board meeting in regular session last evening said they will be slow in letting any contracts for the new addition to the school while costs are on the upgrade.

Both Dr. D. N. Deering of Antioch and Arthur Bennett of Lake Villa agreed that with the war scare, the high cost of materials, and the scarcity of labor that now is no time to build.

The board has not made final acceptance of the plans and specifications.

The new principal, Richard C. Edmundson, met with the board last evening for the first time. He has had to go to Richmond to find a room and has been unable to move his family here from Springfield.

Baby Gets Bump on Head

June Horton, year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Horton, received a bump on the head Sunday when the car driven by her mother was hit from behind by a car driven by Edward D. Maggion, Chicago on Rte. 59, south of the village. Mrs. Horton slowed down to wave at her husband who was riding horseback in an adjoining field.

Fire On The Farm

Fires on farms kill some 3,500 people each year, injure thousands more, and destroy property at an annual rate approaching $100,000,000. To help reduce this loss, farmers can now use a new Farm Safety Inspection Form, prepared by the National Board of Fire Underwriters. It will be sent free, on application to the Board at 85 John Street, New York 7.

The new form is easy and convenient. All the farmer has to do is to check a series of yes or no answers. The blank was submitted to several of the nation's leading authorities on farm fire protection, as well as farmers, for criticism and suggestions. The comments received were incorporated in the final version.

The check list covers in detail such hazards as lightning, flammable liquids, electrical installations and equpment, and heating systems. These are primary causes of farm fires—as, indeed, they are of all fires. And many a grave hazard goes uncorrected simply because it has been overlooked. The National Board's blank provides a way to ferret it out if it exists.

Fire on the farm is one of the gravest of matters. In many instances, organized fire fighting facilities do not exist. Once a fire starts, it usually finds a wealth of flammable materials on which to feed. It may be completely out of control in a matter of minutes. Under these circumstances, fire prevention should be one of the first and most continuous jobs of every farmer.

A Fair Request

One of the serious handicaps under which the coal industry now labors is an inadequate "depletion allowance."

This allowance may seem a formidably difficult matter to understand, but it is basically simple. It is a business expense, allowed as a tax deduction, for the purpose of building a reserve to open new mines or drill new wells as old ones are worked out. In the case of coal, this allowance is five per cent—whereas oil and gas, the competitive fuels are given a rate of 27½ per cent.

Coal operators do not contend that the depletion rate should be the same for all mineral fuels. They have found, however, that at the five per cent rate they are almost never able to recover enough of the original investment to cover the cost of opening a new mine, building a new tipple and meeting other unavoidable costs.

The present expense of starting a new mine is enormous. Everything costs a great deal more than it did in the pre-inflation era when the five per cent allowance figure was established. And, in addition, the operator must be prepared to work a new property at a loss until such time as it attains an efficient production level.

Coal is doing everything possible to improve its methods and facilities, in the interest of the consumer and the miner, as well as the investor and owner. As for the depletion allowance, it asks only that it be revised so that it may more nearly compensate for today's costs. That is a fair and reasonable request.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

As I Hawkshaw around here and there I put 2 and 2 together. Then I deduct. Well, says Henry, elucidate versus beatin' around the bush. All right, I says—and pay some heed—you don't need to keep on being a greenhorn all your life, and especially on "Reclamation," the latest racket.

The latest mulligan cooked up for the "people" is "water and power." A big Commission is beatin' the drum, holding meetings, viewing wth alarm a threatened dilemma, water shortage, navigation, and not least, "Recreation." There is the come-on-bait, recreation. Lunch clubs go for it—they invite the big Govt. Boy to explain and expound on his proposed sweet "gift."

Now folks, listen—hark close—don't go on looking out the window, you are in the middle of a losing-your-shirt affair. The slick Govt. gift man will tell you that with a nice dam there on your crick, you will have fishing and boating and leisurely lolling—and free—at your doorstep. But look out. With the dam will come a powerhouse, and built with your own dinero. A powerhouse full of Govt. employes will be next. But there will be no next on taxes—there will be none—the Govt. pays no taxes—it just collects same.

Folks, keep your hand over the old gold watch and chain—socialism is what the Govt. man is peddling—don't be a greenhorn on "Reclamation," like Henry.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA

Work on School Delayed

Work on the addition to the Lake Villa school has been slowed considerably by lack of brick layers, and it is seriously doubted whether the building will be ready for the openin gof school in September. Only one brick layer and two helpers were available this week.

Alfalfa Ration

When you feed alfalfa as a large part of the roughage side of the ration, your livestock usually gets the calcium needed.

Medley Dish

Leftover onions may be combined with other cooked vegetables —such as cabbage, carrots, and celery—in a creamed medley dish.

Fish Per Acre

Surveys of the Illinois conservation department show an acre of water supports an average of 500 pounds of fish.

V. F. W. Wins from Model Tavern, 15-11 in Ten Inning Session

Antioch maintained its third place tie with Silver Lake by whipping Model Tavern 15-11 in a wild and wooly ten inning battle. The game was a see-saw affair that saw the score knotted at 10-10 at the end of the regulation nine innings. The V. F. W. came up with a five run rally in the tenth which meant the game. The inning was held up fifteen minutes by a downpour of rain but was finished nevertheless.

The pitchers for both teams were hit freely and suffered from control trouble. Ray Bushing, who won his fourth game of the campaign, yielded thirteen hits and nine bases on balls. Fortunately he scattered his passes, whereas Drissel, his opponent issued thirteen walks, three of them in the seventh and six more in the tenth inning to set up Antioch rallies. The VFW also collected twelve hits some of them when most urgently needed.

Bernie Schneider and Ray Bushing were Antioch's men of the hour. Schneider rapped three singles and received three walks while Bushing also collected three singles the last of which drove in the winning run.

Jack and Ruel McMullen were Model Tavern's top stickers. Jack slammed a single, double and triple while Ruel drove in three runs with two sharp singles and a long fly ball.

The Taverners jumped off to a five run lead with two runs in the second inning and three more in the third. A triple by Gallatin, a single by Keating, an error by Schneider and a single by Ruel McMullen produced a 2-0 lead. A triple by Jack McMullen, an error by Wells on Gallatin's grounder, a walk to Keating, another single by Ruel and a single by Drissel made the score 5-0.

Antioch dented the scoring column in the fourth when Crandall walked, took second on an infield out and scored on Wells line single to left. They scored three more markers in the fifth when Bushing led off with a single to left. Crawford reached first when a pitch nudged his cap. Palenski bunted and was safe when the pitcher threw the ball into right field. Bushing scored and the runners took second and third. Schneider then lashed a single between third and short scoring Crawford and Palenski making the score 5-4.

Model Tavern increased its lead to 7-4 on two sixth inning runs. Becker walked and rode home on Zvoda's triple. Zvoda then came in on a fly by Molinaro.

In the seventh Antioch took the lead for the first time on a five run splurge. Dick Scott and Schneider walked. Crandall singled to right. D. Scott scoring. Fox walked to fill the bases. Wells was hit with a pitched ball forcing Schneider across the plate. With the squeeze sign on, Ray Scott bunted and was thrown out. Crandall scoring. Jack McMullen threw the ball to third to hold Fox but Fox did not stop at third but slid across the plate with the tie breaking run. Bushing then singled to drive in Wells with the fifth and last run of the inning.

The Kenoshamen tied the score in their half of the seventh but Antioch again took the lead in the eighth only to have Model Tavern again knot the count in their half of the eighth. Neither team could score in the ninth so the game went into extra inning with the score even at 10-10.

In the tenth Antioch won the game with their second five run rally of the afternoon. D. Scott reached first when Keating could not handle his grounder. Schneider walked. Crandall singled to left to send in Scott. Fox sacrificed. Wells walked to load the bases. Schneider was trapped off third when the squeeze sign was missed. Reckers walked to again fill the bases. Bushing then linded a double to left. Crandall and Wells scoring the winning run. At this point the rains came and play was suspended. After fifteen minutes play was resumed on a somewhat muddy diamond. Crawford, Palenski and D. Scott all walked. Reckers and Bushing scored to make the score 15-10.

Model Tavern scored one unearned run in its tenth but it was not enough and Antioch came home with a well earned 15-11 win.

Next Sunday Antioch will travel to Sturtevant. The locals already hold one victory over the Sturtevant A. C. and will be trying to make it two straight. The game is scheduled for 3:00 P. M. CDT.

Ways to Finish Birch

Birch is a close-grained wood that does not require a paste filler. It can best be given a mahogany or walnut color with a penetrating stain. While it is often given a natural finish with a gloss or dull varnish, a lacquer or a wax, it supplies an excellent base for enamel and may also be bleached.

ALL OVER WORLD

Dogs Work For Living

PHILADELPHIA—All over the world, dogs work for a living and appear to get as much satisfaction, if less money, out of their labors as do their masters. Companion dogs guide their sightless owners to business and social apopintments. Guard dogs protect homes and industrial plants against nocturnal prowlers. Farm dogs herd cattle or sheep.

But Tom Farley, radio commentator who collects odd stories about dogs, tells of canines with more unusual occupation. For instance, everyone knows of human baby sitters but a dog that baby sits is more rare. In Pennsylvania, there's a Dachshund named Gloria that minds the infant son of her owner for a penny an hour. Human sitters would scoff at such a modest stipend, but to date, Gloria has rolled up a bank account of $4.84.

Spaniel Is Perfect Model

Modeling is the job of Butch, pet of animal artist Albert Staehle. You probably know the cocker spaniel from his merry antics which are pictured on covers of the Saturday Evening Post. Butch, who is now three and a half years old, has appeared as Post cover dog a record of 24 times. Staehle says he is a natural born ham and loves posing. He obligingly tears up slippers, dons a raincoat, or dashes about the house with a nylon stocking between his teeth, for the sake of "art."

Perhaps an even more unusual occupation is eating for science in the laboratories where dog food formulas are worked out. Several of the makers of canned dog food, for example, maintain kennels where dogs have been fed on the same formula for ten generations. And when the U. S. Department of Agriculture set up standards for certification of the better foods a few years ago, they were able to study not only laboratory records but the dogs themselves to determine that the formulas would keep America's 20,000,000 dogs in sparkling health.

Placed in Zoo

Last, but far from least interesting, on Farley's list of odd canine occupations is pinch hitting for lions and tigers in a zoo. In prewar days, the Budapest, Hungary, zoo had an animal population of 3,000. However, during the war, the animals were either killed by bombs or slaughtered for food and when the park was reopened, only 14 wild animals remained.

Officials, to enliven the vast park, placed dogs in some of the deserted pens. The dogs proved nearly as big an attraction as the lions, tigers and ant eaters they replaced, and Hungarians visited the zoo in almost pre-war numbers.

Man Ignored 41 Years Makes Big News Now

ASHOKAN, N. Y. — For over 40 years Virgil C. Gordon has carried on at the same job and no one paid much attention to his daily reports.

In those 40 years Gordon has gone down every day into the "still box" beneath the surface of Ashokan reservoir that supplies New York with water and made his readings.

Now, when he makes a reading, every newspaper in New York city wants to know about it. For on those readings depend the future of the city that has suffered a serious water shortage.

He telephones his reports; "Ashokan down eight hundredths of an inch," or "up six hundredths of an inch." The small fractions are vital.

"The newspapers print my reports every day now," he said. "And I'm enjoying getting some attention for a change. I didn't think my job was important. But more and more I get the feeling that it is. It's fine."

Gordon says the official New York rainmaker is helping the situation. Many of the city officials, however, hesitate to express an opinion.

U. S. Official Defends Ban on BCG Vaccine

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Dr. Robert J. Anderson, chief of the tuberculosis division of the U. S public health service, defended the government's refusal to license the vaccine BCG, designed to whip tuberculosis.

Said Dr. Anderson: "The controversary about its effectiveness has not been resolved by clinical application."

Furthermore, the vaccine has not met minimum standards for commercial production, he said. "If it is licensed, it will be the most unstable vaccine licensed."

Anderson admitted the vaccine has been used widely in other parts of the world, but said its usefulness probably is confined to "emergency" areas and test programs.

He also pointed out that BCG vaccination money would divert funds from present control programs and treatment of those who now have the disease.

BCG has been in existence many years, but its usefulness has been debated vigorously in recent months.

SHORT STORY

Valuable Man

By Richard Hill Wilkinson

THE DOOR MARKED "Private" opened and a girl appeared. "Come in please, Mr. Jeffrey," she said.

Tully dropped the magazine he had been reading onto the reception room table, rose, buttoned the coat of his double-breasted suit, straightened his tie and stepped past the girl.

3-Minute Fiction

"Mr. Gunner," said the girl, "has an appointment this morning. He asked our Mr. Jacobs to talk to you."

A rage seized Tully, and a determination. He thought: "To hell with Gunner and his job! I'm going back to Boston. But first I'm going in there and tell that yes-man what I figure I'm worth."

The yes-man was a typical, efficient yes-man, small, bespectacled and used to handling unpleasant duties for Mr. Gunner.

"Sit down, sit down, Jeffrey," he said. "We understand you have a letter. You're seeking employment. Mr. Gunner is very sorry to have to advise that at the moment there's nothing. Not a thing."

"Good," said Tully. "I decided not to take the job anyway. I decided you can't pay what I'm worth."

"Really?" said Mr. Jacobs, arching his brow. "And that is?"

"Two hundred and seventy-five dollars a week!" said Tully. He rose. "Good day, Mr. Jacobs. Give my uncle's regards to Mr. Gunner."

Mr. Jacobs sat at his desk with pursed lips and stared thoughtfully slammed but closed with a determined firmness. Presently he rose at the door that Tully had not and invaded the privacy of portly Mr. Gunner.

Briefly Mr. Jacobs outlined what was in his mind.

"Asking $275, eh? Said he didn't want our job? Probably offered a better job by Erwin and Company. Called here to pay the respects of his uncle, Humm. Treated him rather shoddy, didn't we, Jacobs? Must be a good man. We need good men. Get hold of him, Jacobs."

Mr. Jacobs tried Tully's hotel. There was a wait, then the clerk told him Mr. Jeffrey didn't wish to talk to any representative of Gunner, Inc.

MR. JACOBS went back to the office. Three times that afternoon he called Tully's hotel, but without success. He reported to Mr. Gunner. Mr. Gunner grew thoughtful.

"Jacobs, this youngster is probably the very man we've been looking for. Young, fresh viewpoint, new ideas. If he's worth $275 to Irwin or any one else, he's worth $300 to us. I'll handle it myself."

"Good," said Tully, "I decided not to take the job anyway."

When Mr. Gunner decided to handle anything he went to town. This tenaciousness was responsible for the success of his present firm. Never give up when you think you have something good, was his motto. Thus it was that Tully, returning home late from the theater, found a middle-aged, portly, important looking man parked before his door.

"I'm August Gunner," the portly man said. "My man Jacobs—"

"Told you I said you couldn't pay what I'm worth." Tully finished. "He was right. You can't. Good night, Mr. Gunner."

Uninvited, Mr. Gunner followed Tully inside the room. "I think," he said, "that your uncle rather expected you to go to work for us when you came to New York."

"Correct," said Tully. "So what?" "Your uncle is one of my dearest friends. We'll pay you $300 a week." Tully stared. A sneer curved his lips. Mr. Gunner, he thought, was kidding.

Suddenly Tully realized that Mr. Gunner wasn't kidding. He swallowed, but managed to keep his voice under control. "All right," he said, "I'll take it. For the sake of my uncle."

Outside in the corrider, Mr. Gunner mopped his forehead. What a break! The kid was probably worth twice that much. And this uncle of his. He'd have to remind Jacobs to find out the old boy's name, first thing in the morning.

Justice

Very Strict at Times

MILWAUKEE — Coley B. McAlister, 37, has learned that judges can be very strict.

McAlister was released from the house of correction after serving 30 days for vagrancy. A couple of days later he stopped Patrolman Clement Schmidt and said: "Take me in. I want another 30 days."

Again he was taken before District Judge Harvey L. Neelen on a vagrancy charge. Said the defendant:

"I've reconsidered my proposition, judge. I don't want any more time in jail. What I plan to do is write to my sister in Greenville, S. C., and ask her for money to return home."

"Well, you can do that when you're in the county jail," replied the judge. "There'll be pen and ink."

"Oh, I won't get any money if I have to write from jail," McAlister said.

"What difference does it make where you write the letter to your sister?"

"It makes all the difference in the world: I planned to tell her to send me money because I was sick."

"That would be obtaining money under false pretenses," said the judge. "Ten days in the house of correction."

Air Force Drops Thousands of Men On War Games Area

SOUTHERN PINES—The army air force, in constant search for new and improved methods of delivering men and equipment to any given area for defense or attack, recently completed the largest maneuver since the war in which thousands of men and tons of supplies were delivered by parachute.

In the first 48 hours of operation Swarmer, 15,465 men invaded the North Carolina "combat zone" by parachute or were landed on the airstrip "captured" by first invaders.

Supplies totaling 6,397 tons, including jeeps and three-quarter ton trucks, were also delivered by air. Some of the jeeps and much of the supplies were parachuted from the 807 flights that passed over the area.

In all, 44,000 troops and 46,000 tons were delivered into the zone by air during the 11 day maneuver.

Air Force and Army leaders indicated that they believed the practice airlift, although far from perfect in execution, was demonstrating the practicability of an entirely air-flown attack or counter-attack.

Gen. J. Lawton Collins, army chief of staff, called the maneuver "wonderful" and said it was "the biggest step forward since the war."

Much of the technique used in dropping men and supplies, and scheduling flights over the combat area, were developed in the "Berlin airlift," army officials reported.

Officers said that much of the improvised loading and unloading equipment had not worked as well as expected during the maneuver.

They added, however, that the purpose of the operation was to find answer to those questions:

"How did we err in planning?" "What is good and bad about our equipment?"

The maneuver was a severe test of airborne operations and answered many of the defense department's questions.

Skunks Invade Canadian Town; Citizens Evacuate

PARIS, ONT. — Twisting Shakespeare slightly, the residents of Paris are convinced that a skunk by any other name will smell just as bad.

They should know. Three hundred skunks invaded the town, leaving hundreds of wounded human dignities in its wake. Chickens were killed. Houses were evacuated. And cleaning firms were conducting the greatest amount of business in years.

The army of skunks indiscriminately victimized men, women and children from ambush under porches and in chicken coops.

A skirmish between a group of girls and a family of skunks in the basement of the Y.W.C.A. forced all residents to evacuate.

Alen Clarkson, town councilor, one of the chief victims of the invasion, was ambushed just outside his front door. Several other skunks contaminated his beehives.

Clarkson suggested traps in the human counteroffensive on the invaders. He will be delighted, he said, to give each of the pests a whiff of the exhaust from his automobile in retaliation for the whiffs they have been giving the town.

Hen Rides Three Days Under Hood of Car; Lays Two Eggs

MEMPHIS — W. H. Ellis complained for days about the smell coming from the hood of his automobile. When he finally lifted the hood, he found a hen and two eggs, one broken, the other perfect.

Ellis described the hen as singed and pretty bedraggled. He calculated that he had driven about 90 miles with her under her hood.

IF YOU'RE PALE AS A GHOST!

When your skin has a pallor (sallow complexion) with that faded-out look, or your nerves are jaded and you have that "all-in" feeling, it is usually due to one thing, that is: BLOOD POVERTY

Your blood cells may be fagged-out or shrunken, and you might not realize it. Even if you eat the "best" foods you may not be getting all the good out of your meals simply because you have SLOW Digestion, without knowing it (or gassy stomach) and as a result you are a victim of Blood Poverty! In other words, your blood is not getting the fullest good out of what you eat. So your blood-cells become worn-down and you have only half as much energy as you really need, you get up in the mornings still tired, and your nerves become dull.

Hundreds here in Antioch suffered with 'faded-out" blood and stomach gas until they got CERTA-VIN. This is the new medicine containing 12 Herbs blended with Vitamin B and Iron; you take it before meals and it works with your food. Benefit comes quickly. Your food digests FASTER, with less gassiness, and you get more good out of your meals. In a few days your blood is energized with new red cells and your nerves become stronger. Weak, rundown people tell us they soon feel different all over. And best of all, our price on CERTA-VIN is reasonable. You can actually take this New, modern medicine for only a Few Cents a Day! So don't go on feeling half-sick and half-well. Get Certa-Vin—Reeves Drug Store.

FACT and SCRIPTURE

Three Needs

I know three things must always be
To keep a Nation strong and free.
One is the hearthstone bright and dear
With busy happy, loved ones near;
One is a ready heart and hand
To love and serve and keep the land.
One is a worn and beaten way
To where the people go to pray.
So long as these are kept alive,
Nation and people will survive.
God keep them always, everywhere,
The hearth, the flag, the place of prayer.

—Clarence Flynn

"For the eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to shew himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him. Herein hast thou done foolishly; therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars.

II Chron. 16:9

Then Peter opened his mouth and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respector of persons:

But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

—Acts 10:34-35

First of the Fine Cars in Value

Even Wiser than He Seems

PLAINLY, here travels a man wise in the ways of fine motorcars.

You know that, by the four Ventiports and the rich sweep of chrome which mark his car as a ROADMASTER.

You know it, should you trail him on the highway, by the smooth lift of the big Fireball power plant at his toe's command, by the obvious levelness of the ride he enjoys, the swift ease with which Dynaflow Drive solves his traffic problems.

What is not so plain from what you see is that here also is a man very wise in what today's dollar should buy!

For this man has all that a fine-car owner can ask for—brilliant performance, a ride without equal for gentle softness, finger-easy handling, abundant room all around him, styling that is easily the most distinguished on the highway.

Yet he paid considerably less than comparable merit costs elsewhere.

He found fewer extra charges in his delivered price, with such things as Dynaflow Drive, foam rubber cushions, windshield washers, electric clock, even non-glare rear-view mirror included in the price.

If you know fine cars, it won't take fifteen minutes behind a ROADMASTER wheel to see that here is one of the finest.

If you have inquired about prices, a single glance at the delivered figures establishes this as the big buy of the field.

Why not make both checks—especially since your Buick dealer will be glad to arrange a trial run in a ROADMASTER any time you care to call on him?

Only BUICK has Dynaflow DRIVE and with it goes:*

HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines. (New F-263 engine in SUPER models.) • NEW-PATTERN STYLING, with MULTI-GUARD forefront, taper-through fenders, "double bubble" taillights • WIDE-ANGLE VISIBILITY, close-up road view both forward and back • TRAFFIC-HANDY SIZE, less over-all length for easier parking and garaging, short turning radius • EXTRA-WIDE SEATS cradled between the axles • SOFT BUICK RIDE, from all-coil springing, Safety-Ride rims, low-pressure tires, ride-steadying torque-tube • WIDE ARRAY OF MODELS with Body by Fisher.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Superfine Fibers

Delicate fibers of quartz, only one-fiftieth the thickness for use in man hair, are produced for use in sensitive balances and electrical measuring instruments. Some of the fibers are so superfine that more than 10 miles of them could be wound on an ordinary-size spool that holds only 250 yards of common cotton thread.

Tops in Roses

High among the world's most coveted rose awards are the Bagatelle of France, the Gold Medal of the National Rose society in England and the All-America award, highest pre-introduction honor for roses in this country.

Water for Pigs

A supply of clean water at all times is important in producing hogs successfully. Pigs make faster and more economical gains when they have plenty of water.

Cow-Calls

When calling cows from pasture, the Northern farmer is likely to sound off with something like "co-boss," while the midlander will call "soo-dow" or "sookie," and the linguistic southerner "so-ee" or "co-wench."

Kitchen Convenience

A stainless sheet placed in the bottom of the oven will catch overflowing juices which can be removed later by washing in the sink.

The Boss Who Remembers...

Surface Saver

Experts estimate that more than five and one-half billion dollars is saved by the American public each year through the use of paint.

Cattle Disease

Leptospirosis is a dangerous cattle disease which first appeared in this county six years ago and appears to be spreading.

Wounded Animals

Repeated washing of wounds on animals is not necessary or advisable.

Loch Lomond

Of the 30 islands that dot Lomond, Scotland, Inchmurrin is the largest. On its southern tip are the ruins of old Lennox Castle, besieged in 1425 after the Lennox family plotted against King James I. From Inchcallish, known as the "isle of old women," Roderick Dhu of "The Lady of the Lake" took a yew tree to make the Fiery Cross.

Safe Bedroom

For safety be sure the bedroom is arranged to allow a clear passageway to doors. See that electric fixtures give clear, well-diffused light throughout the room, with three-way switches at doors and within easy reach of the bed.

Cankerworms

Cankerworms, or inchworms as they are often called from their inching-along method of locomotion, are great defoliators of all deciduous trees. In many sections of the country they will be in outbreak form this year. In others they may be just reaching the peak of tapering off.

Are prices low on all items every day in the week?
Is the price plainly marked on each item?
Is the quality high?
The answer should always be "yes" at A&P. If it isn't, we want to know about it.
